Expectations and Responsibilities of a Junior Member

Ross on Wye Golf Club welcomes you as a junior member of our club. We hope that you will enjoy playing golf with us and that at all times you will be treated with respect and fairness whilst playing on the course and when in the club house. You will be expected to treat all other members with the same respect.

As a junior member there are certain expectations and responsibilities that are requested of you and your parents whilst you are in the care of the club. Namely that you:-

1. Always demonstrate the highest standard of behaviour and dress both on and off the course.
Dress code enclosed.
2. Always behave in a safe manner when using clubs and balls.
3. Behave in a sporting manner. Win or lose.
4. Join in the junior section activities, competitions and matches.
5. Advise the Junior Organiser of any medical condition or illness from which you may be suffering and any prescribed drugs/medication that you may be taking.
6. That you keep the Junior Organiser and/or the professional shop aware of your presence on the course at all times. Do this by registering in the pro shop BEFORE going on the course AND when leaving.
7. That during matches, competitions and coaching you observe all instructions and requests made by the Junior Organiser, Team Manager or Professional and also at all other times.
8. Be aware that at other times on the course you are not the responsibility of the Junior Section.
9. That you make your own travel arrangements or accept and comply with any made on your behalf by the club.

I understand and accept without reservation the above expectations and responsibilities and agree that should I behave in a way contrary to the above, or in a manner detrimental to the club I accept that I will be dealt with appropriately.
